I am a full-time working professional with a 3 yr old American Bulldog. We are both very chill and don't make much noise around the house. Love the outdoors and a good book.

What we are hoping for is one human that is either working full-time or going to school, has no pets (house is not set up well for additional pets), enjoys a quiet home with an awesome personality.

If this is you, or someone you know please pass my details over to them. House is available ASAP.
