OVCMT Student Life

Progression through the program

In each term, in order for the student to progress to the next term through the Registered Massage Therapy Program the following must be satisfied:

- a) A weighted Term mark of 70% or higher, both Academic and Practical, with a minimum grade of 65% in each individual course. There are the following considerations:
 - I. In cases where a weighted Term mark of less than 70% and greater than 65% is attained, an alternative learning experience may be granted for one course. Except in extenuating circumstances no more than one alternative learning experience shall be allowed per course to a maximum of two alternative learning experiences per program year.
 - II. Alternative learning experiences may include a rewrite or other experience, such as an alternative oral practical exam, acceptable to the Director and must result in a replacement grade.
 - III. Extenuating circumstances may include documented medical or personal reasons for which the assessment mark, in the opinion of the Director, was outside the normal range for that student.
- b) A pass/conditional pass for those courses of a pass/conditional pass/fail nature only.
- c) Successful completion of all clinical practicum requirements and hours for graduation.

The OVCMT Registered Massage Therapy Diploma is not eligible for the Post-Graduation Work Permit Program following graduation.

Attendance

OVCMT attendance is required to succeed in the program.

If a student's attendance falls below 80% in academic courses, the Academic Director will contact the student to undergo a review of their current academic standing in the course(s) and decide the outcome, considering the best interest of the student.

OVCMT International Student Handbook

Students are required to complete all tests, quizzes and assignments as noted on the course outline.

If a student's attendance falls below 80% in practical courses, the student will be examined more thoroughly in oral practical (O-P) examinations. In an O-P situation a student may be asked to perform one treatment or assessment, randomly selected from the 10 that have been taught. A more thorough exam would mean the student may be examined on three, four or more.

If a student falls below an 70% attendance rate in any Practical course, the college reserves the right to review the student's situation to determine if they are eligible to write the exams for the course or be dismissed from the program.

Attendance at all assigned shifts is mandatory and must be made-up if a shift is missed.

OVCMT Policies

Please also refer to the Current Student Policy and Procedure Manual for all OVCMT Student policies. A copy of the current student policy and procedure manuals is located on the student resources Moodle, a copy is sent with your contract, and a hard copy is available on site.

Academic Dispute

Students may appeal a final course or oral practical exam grade under the following circumstances:

1. If grading criteria were not clearly specified at the beginning of the class.
2. If grading criteria were not followed as stated or were not consistently followed for all students.
3. If an individual student believes that their class grade was based on or impacted by something other than stated grading criteria.

It is the student's responsibility to contact the instructor, or the examiner in the case of oral practical exams, to clarify how the grade was determined and to express any concern the student may have within 72 hours of receiving the grade. If the instructor's explanation does not resolve the question, the student may submit a grade appeal to the appropriate Director using the OVCMT Reporting and Investigation Form. A record of the grade appeal and resolution will be maintained in the student file.

An appeal must consist of the following:

1. It must be made in writing, dated, and signed by the student.
2. It must include the course name, instructor's name, final grade, and the reason why the student believes the grade is not accurate.
3. A grade appeal must be made within seven (7) days of the reporting of the final mark. All appeals will be resolved within fourteen (14) days of submission.

OVCMT International Student Handbook

Non - Academic Dispute

OVCMT encourages the use of the following four-step communication model for both staff and students. However, students may at any time access the formal dispute resolution process described further below:

1. In cases where you feel in conflict, angry, unhappy, or uncertain with someone, the first step is to discuss this with the person involved. If you feel you cannot address the person for some reason such as a power imbalance, or if you have strong emotion, then the first step becomes to seek the assistance of someone who can give you positive support in preparing to talk to the person with whom you have the concern.
2. If you feel unresolved after step one, you may communicate this to the individual involved within 10 days of your first meeting, and move to step two, which is to involve a mediating third party from within the college, a person mutually agreed upon. If no request for a college mediator is made within the 10-day period, the matter should be considered as resolved.
3. If you feel unresolved within 10 days after step two, step three would be to create a committee of no fewer than three and no more than five mutually agreed upon people from within the college to mediate the situation and propose a solution. If no request is made for the mediation committee within the 10-day period, the matter should be considered resolved.
4. If the matter is unresolved after step three, the formal dispute resolution process should be followed.

Harassment and Anti-Racism Policy

OVCMT is committed to fostering a respectful, inclusive, and discrimination-free environment. Harassment and racism—whether verbal, physical, written, or digital—are not tolerated in any form.
